Mihintalaya

Mihintalaya is one of the most popular destinations among people since the era of King Dewanampiyatissa. It is said to be the first capital city of Sri Lanka which was rich in natural beauty. It became a sacred place since Arahath Mahinda came to Sri Lanka with the patronage of Emperor Ashoka to deliver the message of Buddhism. This place is attracted by many local and foreign people with the arrival of Buddhism. Mihintalaya was a place where animals slaughter was prohibited and they were treated with compassion with the ideology of 'King is not the owner but the guardian of the kingdom'. In the month of June large crowd of pilgrims throng to Mihintalaya to commemorate 'Mahindagamanaya' due to number of legends associated with this place.

You can visit many historical and archaeological places in Mihintalaya. Our circuit bungalow is situated in the border of Mihintalaya with the aim of providing many facilities to pilgrims travelling to Anuradhapura.
